

Data Processing Consent for WTA and ATP Auckland 2026

What data do we collect?

During the application process you will be required to provide personal data.

Why we ask for your consent

We are committed to protecting the privacy of all personal data you provide us for these events. The following statements describe what we are doing with your data and how long we store it. This ensures you are fully informed prior to you submitting your personal information for the events. By checking the "I give consent" box in the Data Processing Consent section of the form, you consent to your personal information being used, stored and disclosed in accordance with this Data Consent Policy.

Data Controller Contact & Nominated Data Protection Officer

Tennis NZ Officials

Email: officials@tennis.kiwi

Why are we processing your personal data?

We ask for your personal data to facilitate your participation in these events. Your data will be used solely for this event and possibly future events run in New Zealand, and under no circumstances be sold or used for other purposes.

Third parties that may have access to your personal data

Your data may be shared with other logistical organisations and third parties in order to deliver these events. Only data required to undertake their specific role will be made available to them. The third parties may include:

WTA

ATP

ITF

National officiating body specific to applicants

Tennis Auckland

Tennis NZ

Accommodation providers

Security providers

How long will we store your personal data?

Your personal data will be retained by us for up to 6 months after the conclusion of the events. After this, your data will be stored only for purposes of communications regarding future events being organised.

The right to inquire about your personal data

You retain the right to ask us about your personal data at any time. Please contact us at officials@tennis.kiwi with any enquiries you may have.

The right to withdraw your consent

You retain the right to withdraw consent to use your personal data at any time. Please be aware that a withdrawal of consent before the start of this event means we will have to remove your personal details. Unfortunately, this may preclude you from attending the event as we do need to store your personal details for multiple event related purposes. Please contact us at sjnoble76@gmail.com with any enquiries you may have.

The right to forget or anonymise your personal details

You retain the right to request that we forget or anonymise your personal data. If you have attended any event with us, we will retain any financial or event attendance records for reporting reasons, but will remove all personal data from our database, leaving an anonymised record for reporting reasons. If we have provided your personal data to third parties we will inform these third parties that you have requested your data be anonymised.

Data Breaches

In the case of data breaches identified by anyone other than the Data Protection Officer, the identifying party must inform the Data Protection Officer of the data breach immediately. Once aware of a data breach, the Data Protection Officer will immediately put measures in place cease and rectify the breach and will report the breach to the supervisory authority within the applicable country within 72 hrs (e.g. the Privacy Commissioner in New Zealand or the Information Commissioner in Australia).
